

SOCIALISTS URGE REMOVAL OF JUDGE FOR ELSSEN RULING

Hanford's Decision Cancelling
Citizenship Papers May Be Basis of Impeachment Proceedings.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 12.—The right of a Federal Judge to revoke the citizenship of any man who has sworn allegiance to the American flag overshadowed all other issues in the Socialist National Convention today. Federal action was prompted by Congressman Victor Berger of Wisconsin. He supported the delegates who are aligned behind the movement to compel Judge Cornelius H. Hanford, who on Saturday revoked the naturalization papers of Leonard Elsen to recall his decision or face impeachment proceedings. As soon as Berger reaches Washington he says he will take the decision up on the floor of Congress. Never before has a jurist attempted to say whether alleged mental reservations could be utilized to revoke citizenship, and the Socialists have received numerous letters and telegrams from both Democratic and Republican leaders tendering support in a legal battle to prove that their allegations that Hanford permitted his personal prejudices to rule his decision were true. The decision will be carried to the Supreme Court of the United States, and the financing of the legal battle will be taken care of by men who have no sympathy with socialism.

The feature of to-day's session was the presentation of the reports of the committee and the permanent officers of the Socialist organization. Great interest centered in the report of Secretary John M. Work, who bitterly arraigned speaking campaigns in a national fight. Work's attitude was opposed by many members of the National Committee who read in it a repudiation of the party ideal, Eugene V. Debs, and it was not believed that the convention would go on record as opposing "Red Specials" or any other method which would bring Socialism nearer to the rank and file of the voters of America.

John M. Kelly of West Hoboken, N. J., Morris Goldstein of Boston, and John R. Russell of New York were to-day elected secretaries of the convention and it was agreed that a chairman would be chosen daily. Beyond organisations and reports, no business was transacted at the morning session. The afternoon session was devoted to the reception of fraternal delegates, oratorical pyrotechnics being postponed until consideration of reports taken up tomorrow.

Candidates for the Presidency will be nominated on next Friday. To-day it was accepted by the delegates that the fight would be between Eugene V. Debs of Terre Haute, who does not want the nomination, but is admittedly the overwhelming choice of the party; At large, and is opposed by the party; William D. Haywood of Denver, representative of the militant element in industrial unionism; Job Harriman of Los Angeles, and former Mayor Field of Milwaukee.

STRAW HAT CASE IN COURT.

Highest Tribunal in the Land to Pass on It.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—On the eve of the straw hat season the United States Supreme Court today put a Panama hat question up to the Supreme Court of the United States.

It was this: When a seller of foreign merchandise consigned to the United States fraudulently undervalues it, may Government seize it immediately upon its arrival and before any act has been done in this country to obtain possession of such merchandise?

The explanation was made that twenty-five packages of Panama hats would be affected by the answer. The New York courts decided against the Government, so the Department of Justice asked the Supreme Court to review the case.

ITALIANS CLOSE AEGEAN SEA.

Block Turkey From Sending Troops to Tripoli.

ROME, May 12.—It is announced in the newspapers to-day that the occupation by Italy of the islands of Karpathos, Kaso, Pileppi (Tinos) and Nisyro, in the Grecian Archipelago and belonging to Turkey, together with the capture of the Turkish islands of Stampalia and Rhodes, completely closes the Aegean Sea.

Turkey is thus blockaded and isolated from the Mediterranean and she is consequently unable to despatch warships or troops to Tripoli.

One Leader Is Sentenced.

Thomas Chisole of No. 222 East Fourteenth street, sometimes known as Rose and Young, the twenty-three year old son-in-law of the "Hungry" Jackson band of fighters and thieves, was sentenced to Sing Sing for three years and six months at least and for seven years at most, by Judge O'Sullivan in General Sessions to-day.

A revolver was found in his pocket on Fourteenth street on April 1. He was convicted last week after a long trial. He received the limit sentence, but had never before been convicted of a felony, so an indeterminate sentence was necessary under the law.

Thackeray's Tip.
(From the London Chronicle.)
Thackeray often revisited his old school—always with a well-filled pocket, which was quickly emptied. Mr. Lewis Melville writes that "an old Carthusian who once accompanied him has related how Thackeray tipped the first lad he met with a sovereign, proceeded to empty purse and pocket in tips for other boys, and, his resources temporarily exhausted, borrowed every coin his companion had about him and distributed these too, with the result that, not having the cash left, the two 'old boys' had to walk home."
